

Information Technology Business Consultant

The ideal candidate will be an experienced Information Technology Business Consultant who will have an ability to create and maintain an appropriate customer liaison to become a trusted advisor. Advantage would be an experience in eHealth. To be already familiar with IHE and HL7 would be another plus. The candidate should be comfortable multitasking and working cross-functionally with different project stream. The ideal candidate will have previous experience in related fields.

No headhunter desired!

Responsibilities

- Consult and manage customers in line with company and customer standard
- Maintain several tasks and stream, be accurately and trustfully to customer
- Manage the daily needs and functions of business consulting itself
- Communicate and document your doing and your achievements
- Ensure appropriate customer communication and business ethic

Qualifications

- 5+ years of experience in a similar role within Information Technology
- Proficiency in Business Consulting along the Digital Transformation
- Strong organizational, communication and trusted advisor skills
- Strong ability to multitasking different customer and mission
- Comfort working with multiple groups within daily business
- German and English is a must

Contact Address:

Michael Vetterli

Leiter Verkauf & Marketing
michael.vetterli@bint.ch